Privacy Notice for Recruitment

Privacy Notice (How we use candidate information)

This Privacy Notice has been written to inform prospective employees of Wadham School about what we do with your personal information.

We, Wadham School, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law. Our Data Protection Officer (DPO) is Amy Brittan (see 'Contact us' below).

What information do we collect and why do we require it?

As part of your job application Wadham School will need to assess your suitability for the vacancy. This means that we need to collect information about you in order to facilitate this.

This information includes, but is not necessarily limited to:

- Your name(s), title, contact details, address, and National Insurance Numbers
- ID Documents
- Eligibility to Work
- Previous employment history
- Education and Professional Qualifications
- Membership of professional or government bodies
- Referee Details
- Equalities information (so that we can monitor workplace equality)
- Any information provided by your nominated referees (which includes any relevant disciplinary actions and/or sickness information)
- Any other relevant information you wish to provide to us

Collecting this information

Much of the information we process will be obtained directly from your application form. However, we may need to collect data about you from, but not necessarily limited to, the following organisations:

- Your nominated referees,
- The Disclosure and Barring Service
- The Local Authority.

Data sharing

Generally we will keep your personal data within Wadham School but in some instances may be required to disclose your personal data to:

- Third party assessment providers (in order to facilitate your suitability for a role)
- The Local Authority (who may assist the school with the recruitment process)
- Our governing body

Sometimes your application may need to be submitted to an assessment panel. These panels could include individuals from other organisations. We will tell you if this is the case.
